

REGISTRATION TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The Travel Convention is a trading name of ABTA Limited.

1. To register you must complete an on-line registration.
2. By registering on-line you have agreed to accept the terms and conditions and your confirmation of registration will be issued immediately. A contract will exist between you ABTA Limited as soon as your confirmation of registration is issued on the following terms and conditions.
3. Full remittance of registration fees must accompany on-line bookings.
4. To qualify for the ABTA Member or Partner registration fee, you must be an ABTA Member or Partner or directly employed by an ABTA Member or Partner and relevant Membership fees must be up-to-date at the time you register.
5. Other delegates, employed by associated companies or as professional advisers to the Member or Partner company, will be considered non-Members or Partners and must pay the appropriate fees.
6. Where a registration contains misrepresentations about entitlement to the ABTA Member or Partner registration fee, ABTA Limited reserves the right to render the booking invalid and all registration fees will be forfeit.
7. Misrepresentation about status will also entitle ABTA Limited to cancel all other registrations made on behalf of the registered organisation concerned and registration fees will be forfeit.
8. Delegates may be required to satisfy ABTA Limited of their registration status. Failure to do so will render their registration invalid.
9. A companion refers to a delegate's spouse/partner rather than a business colleague or other associate. NB: Anyone sharing accommodation with a registered delegate (that is not a delegate in their own right) must be registered as a companion for the Convention, regardless of whether they are attending any elements of the event.
10. For delegates with accompanying children, the companion fee will apply to children of 16 or 17.
Note: children under the age of 16 are asked not to attend any of the Travel Convention activities as they are deemed unsuitable for children.
11. ABTA Limited reserves the right to pass on increases in taxation or duties should they occur between time of booking and the Travel Convention.
12. Delegate materials will not be despatched until full payment, including any amendment fees, has been received by ABTA Limited.
13. Cancellations made on or before Wednesday 4 July 2018 will receive a refund of the payment amount, but will be subject to an administration charge of £75 + Spanish VAT per delegate. In the event of late arrival, unattended events or cancellation of attendance from Monday 17 July 2017, no refunds will be granted and any outstanding amounts will be deemed as owing to ABTA Limited.

14. Delegates wishing to amend their registration on or after Thursday 5 July 2018 will incur an amendment fee of £50 + Spanish VAT on each occasion that an amendment is made, to cover the administration involved. Written notification to ABTA Limited is required for all requests for substitutions or amendments. Please attach a copy of your confirmation of registration to the notification.
15. Delegates wishing to replace lost badges on-site will incur a fee of £5.00. Note: for security reasons, access will not be permitted to official Travel Convention activities without an official badge.
16. Excursions or other tours that you may choose to book either now or whilst you are at the Travel Convention, are not part of the arrangements provided by ABTA Limited. Your contract for the excursion or tour will be with the operator of the excursion or tour. ABTA Limited is not responsible for the excursion or tour or for anything that happens during the course of its provision by the operator.
17. Because many of the services associated with The Travel Convention are provided by the local host committee and various suppliers of The Travel Convention services over whose operations, personnel and equipment ABTA Limited has no control, and subject to clause 18 below, in no event shall ABTA Limited or any of its officers, directors, Members, contractors or employees assume responsibility, or be liable, for any personal injury, property damage, or other loss which may be occasioned by reason of: wrongful or negligent acts or omissions on the part of the local host committee, any of the suppliers, or any employees of the suppliers, or sponsors or organisers of private functions; any defect or failure of any vehicle or other equipment owned, operated or otherwise used by the local host committee, or any of the suppliers or sponsors or organisers of private functions; any wrongful or negligent acts or omissions on the part of any other party not under the direct control of ABTA Limited.
18. The exclusions and limitations of a party's liability shall not apply in the case of: 1. the tort of deceit or fraudulent misrepresentation by it or its personnel; 2. death or personal injury caused by its negligence; a breach by that party of obligations implied by section 12 of the Sale of Goods Act 1979 or section 2 of the Supply of Goods and Services Act 1982.
19. In the event of the occurrence or, in ABTA Limited's reasonable opinion, the likelihood of the occurrence, of any extraordinary risk of injury or damage (including but not limited to any acts of god, fires, explosions, earthquakes, floods, elements, volcanic eruptions, strikes, riots, civil commotion's, epidemics, war, rebellion, or harmful acts for political, terrorist or other similar purposes), ABTA Limited reserves the right to assess the risk of injury or damage and, at ABTA Limited's sole discretion, to determine whether to cancel or otherwise limit the Travel Convention activities. Should the Travel Convention be cancelled or limited for any reason beyond ABTA Limited's reasonable control, ABTA Limited's liability will be limited to the registration fees (excluding any non-refundable deposit) paid at that time.
20. ABTA Limited is happy for private events to take place during the Convention, provided they do not clash with the official programme. Any company hosting a private event that clashes with an official element of the event will have their registration(s) revoked and will be refused entry to all business and social events throughout the Travel Convention.

21. Please note, the sale of Travel Convention related sponsorship via a third party is not permitted. This policy will be strictly monitored and failure to adhere will result in your company's delegates having their registration(s) revoked and may render your company unable to register for future ABTA Limited events.
22. It is strictly prohibited for any company or individual to make use of The Travel Convention logo or any part of it without prior written authorisation. Guidelines for use of the logo by those authorised to do so may be obtained from ABTA Limited.
