

#ABTATOKYO FACT SHEET

WHEN

Monday 7 October to Wednesday 9 October.

WHERE

The Convention will take place at the Prince Hotels & Resorts, Grand Prince Hotel New Takanawa, which is directly connected to the International Convention Center Pamir.

ACCOMMODATION

All delegates will stay at the Grand Prince Hotel New Takanawa, which is centrally located in Tokyo with direct access to Haneda International Airport, Shinkansen (Bullet Train) rail lines and only a few minutes' walk from Shinagawa Station – one of the largest in Tokyo.

Rates per night will start from 27,000 JPY plus Japanese Consumption Tax.

FLIGHTS

Delegates will be able to travel directly and indirectly to Tokyo from a number of UK airports on services operated by ANA, with direct economy flights starting from £599 and indirect economy flights starting from £449.

- Birmingham
- Bristol
- Edinburgh
- Glasgow
- London
- Manchester
- Newcastle

REGISTRATION

Registrations will open early in the New Year, however as demand is expected to be high, you can reserve a place for yourself and your colleagues by paying a £100pp deposit.

Securing your place now will guarantee the 2018 Early Bird registration fee:

ABTA Member and First ABTA Partner £505
Additional ABTA Partners and Other Delegates £660
Companions £125

#ABTATOKYO FACT SHEET

EXCURSIONS

A programme of excursions in and around Tokyo will be announced when registrations open.

PRE AND POST TOURS

Pre and post tours to discover other areas of Japan will be announced when registrations open.

RUGBY WORLD CUP

The Rugby World Cup will be taking place throughout Japan during the Travel Convention.

Games around Tokyo either side of the Convention, include:

Tokyo Stadium

Oct 5th England vs Argentina
Oct 19th Quarter Final
Oct 20th Quarter Final

International Stadium Yokohama

Oct 12th England vs France
Oct 13th Scotland vs Japan

FORMULA 1

The Japanese Grand Prix will be taking place in Suzuka.

October 11-13

TIME ZONE

+8 hours (GMT)

CLIMATE

In October, the average temperature is 20°C / 68°F

VISA

Visas are not required for United Kingdom passport holders.